

Homophones

(ANSWERS)

Homophones

Choose the correct homophone from the brackets. For example:

Archie tied a strong knot (knot not) in the ship's rigging.

- The farmer had to move his stubborn herd (heard herd) of cows into the barn.
- Tanay didn't know whether (whether weather) to eat the chocolate cake or the jelly.
- It's vital to have a good breakfast; eating a nutritious cereal (cereal serial) can help.
- Rebecca flexed the strong muscles (muscles mussels) in her arms.
- The tomato sauce (source sauce) was as thick as treacle.
- The ice-cream van drove past (past passed) the waiting crowd.
- The wild wind blew the weather vane (vain vane) off the church roof.
- The sole (soul sole) of my shoe had a gaping hole in it.
- Queen Victoria reigned (reigned reined) for 63 years.

19

Homophones

Underline the correct homophone to complete the sentence.
For example:

The ticket will be in (yore you're your) wallet.

- The boomerang landed in the shrubs over (they're their there).
- If it's not (to two too) late, I'm going to come to the theatre.
- Mika wanted to (by buy bye) a Christmas gift for his colleague.
- Amy didn't have the faintest clue (wear where ware) she was going.
- This wasn't the (write rite right) time to mention that the test had been postponed.
- Asif was in (ore oar awe) of his older brother's new motorbike.
- There was a long (pours paws pause) as an awkward silence filled the room.
- (By Buy Bye) now for the lowest prices and best deals in town!
- Matt was given a lot of (prays preys praise) for his volunteer work.

19