

Dodge's Emotions

Find these parts of Chapter 1 and think about how Dodge must have been feeling.

When Dodge listened to the 'strange roar rumble in the distance'.

Dodge's feelings: _____

Why do you think he felt this way? _____

When Dodge 'made a little whimpering noise and sprinted towards the underpass.'

Dodge's feelings: _____

Why do you think he felt this way? _____

When Dodge was wondering where Banjo was.

Dodge's feelings: _____

Why do you think he felt this way? _____

When the buildings were blocking his view.

Dodge's feelings: _____

Why do you think he felt this way? _____

Dodge's Emotions

Answers

When Dodge listened to the 'strange roar rumble in the distance'.

Dodge's feelings: Nervous, apprehensive and worried.

Why? Dodge knew something was about to happen; something dangerous.

When Dodge 'made a little whimpering noise and sprinted towards the underpass'.

Dodge's feelings: Worried and scared.

Why? Dodge was hoping he would make it to the underpass.

When Dodge was wondering where Banjo was.

Dodge's feelings: Scared and concerned.

Why? Dodge was concerned for Banjo and hoping he was safe.

When the buildings were blocking his view.

Dodge's feelings: Wonderment and possible confusion.

Why? Dodge wanted to get a better view but couldn't because the buildings were in the way.