

DAY 55

- Correct the spelling mistake. extraordinary
Turtles and tortoises are extraordinary reptiles.
- Circle the incorrect spelling. hieght height
- Circle the correct spelling. extream extreme
- Add t, tt, th or ed to complete the words.
cattle Thailand rusheded
towards bottom
- Add a prefix that means to do again.
refill reheat
- Circle the two words that can be built from possible.
unpossible impossible possibled possibility
- A synonym for considerate is _____.
unkind thoughtful confident
- Show the syllable breaks in reproduce. re-pro-duce
- Write the homophone for threw. through
- The singular of scales is scale or scales! (depending on type!)
- Punctuate the sentence.
The largest tortoises in the world live on the Galapagos Islands in the Pacific Ocean. (context).
- The underlined phrase is correct. Yes No turtles' shells turtle's shells
- The sentence is reported speech. Yes No
The scientist explained that turtles live most of their life in water while tortoises live all their life on land.
- Circle the nouns.
A sea turtle uses its flippers to swim in the ocean.
- Write the missing verb in its correct form. swim
The turtle swam from one island to the another.
- Circle the verbs.
Both creatures lay eggs on land and bury them in sand where they hatch.
- Which tense? past present future
The eggs will remain incubating until they hatch.
- The underlined words are: nouns pronouns
When a female has laid her eggs, she doesn't look after them.
- The underlined word is a: conjunction preposition verb
Tortoises can live between 70 and 150 years.
- Add the correct pronoun. Tiny turtles and tortoises, called hatchlings, must look after themselves.

MY SCORE

DAY 56

- Circle the correct spelling. ocasionally occasionally
- Circle the correct spelling. magazeen magazine
- Circle the correct spelling. trampoline trampoleen
- The underlined word has a k (kite) sound. Yes No location account challenge chlorine
- Add the suffix ible to change the verbs to adjectives.
flexible reverse ible
- Circle the two words that can be built from honest.
dehonest honesty dishonest honesting
- The underlined word is the antonym for stationary.
 Yes No movable motionless standing
- Show the syllable breaks in critical. crit-i-cal
- Write the homophone for course. Coarse
- Write the plural of runner-up. runners-up
- Punctuate the sentence. Mrs Murphy, who lives down the road, is very superstitious.
- Circle the correct phrase.
the woman's superstitions the womans' superstitions
- Circle the sentence type. direct reported
'It's unlucky to walk under ladders!' she exclaimed.
- Circle the adjectives.
There are people who think black cats are a sign of good luck.
- Write the missing verb in its correct form. give
She once gave me a fake, stuffed rabbit's foot, which is a good luck charm.
- Circle the verbs.
She said bad luck follows those who step on cracks in the footpath.
- Which tense? past present future
We watched her avoiding the pavement cracks!
- The underlined words are: nouns pronouns
If you knock over a salt shaker, you must toss some salt over your left shoulder to prevent bad luck.
- Insert a full stop and a capital letter.
Some people say it's unlucky to open an umbrella inside a house. They believe that by doing so, it might start to rain.
- Add the correct pronoun. A bee in the house means a visitor will arrive, but if you kill it, the visitor will not be a welcome guest.

MY SCORE