

DAY 59

- Circle the incorrect spelling. forgiveable forgiveable
- Correct the spelling mistake. chocolate
My favourite ice-cream flavour is chokolat.
- Circle the correct word. permission permission
- Circle the words that have a j (jar) sound.
registration magically dredging greatly
- The root tri in tripod and triangle means:
ten three two
- Circle the two words that can be built from danger.
redanger endanger dangerer dangerous
- A synonym for foe is enemy.
friend family enemy
- The syllable breaks are correct. Yes No e/mer/gen/cy
- Write another homophone for pear/pare. pair
- Write the singular of salmon. Salmon
- Punctuate the sentence.
Red algae is collected as food in places like Finland, Japan and Iceland.
- The underlined phrase is correct. Yes No
Dad's recipe Dads' recipe
- Circle the sentence type. direct reported
The chef explained how to make sushi wrapped in seaweed.
- Circle the nouns.
Haggis, a dish from Scotland, is made from the heart, lungs and liver of a sheep.
- Write the missing verb in its correct form. be
They are mixed with oats, placed inside a sheep's stomach and boiled for an hour.
- Circle the verb groups.
Gazpacho soup is made from finely chopped raw vegetables and is served cold.
- Which tense? past present future
I will try frog's legs and snails one day.
- The underlined word is a: pronoun verb
Snails are removed from their shell and cleaned before they are put back.
- Circle the simile.
The cooked snails are as soft as butter.
- Add the correct pronoun.
If you taste a frog's leg, you'll probably agree it tastes like chicken.

MY SCORE

DAY 60

- Rearrange the letters to make a word that means the opposite of cheap. psevxiene expensive
- Circle the correct spelling. suspicious suspicious
- Circle the incorrect word. abundance abundince
- Circle the word that has an or (door) sound.
friend mourning stalking thoughtful
- Add the suffix ation to change the verbs to nouns.
information vaccinate ion
- Circle the two words that can be built from appear.
reappear appearance deappear appearly
- The underlined word is an antonym for enough.
 Yes No plenty empty insufficient
- Show the syllable breaks in humidity. hu-mid-i-ty
- Write another homophone for seize/seas. sees
- Write the singular of pianos. piano
- Punctuate the sentence. An aye-aye is an unusual mammal found only in Madagascar.
- The underlined phrase is correct. Yes No
scientist's discoveries scientists' discoveries
- Circle the sentence type. direct reported
'The aye-aye was first thought to be a rodent!' the scientist exclaimed.
- Insert it's or its.
Its face is like a raccoon's, its body is like a monkey's and its tail like a squirrel's.
- Write the missing verb in its correct form. be
The most peculiar feature is its hands.
- Circle the verb groups.
Its long middle finger is used to tap on branches and can find hollows where insects hide.
- Which tense? past present future
The aye-aye scoops out an insect with its long finger.
- The underlined words are: adverbs adjectives
Many Malagasy are frightened by its spooky facial appearance and witch-like hands.
- Circle the simile.
Some animals' teeth need to be as sharp as razors to help them get food.
- Add the correct pronoun.
The aye-aye is thought to be named after a sound used as a cry to warn people that it is near.

MY SCORE