

DAY 47

- Correct the spelling mistake. favourite
One of Dad's favorite hobbies is playing golf.
- The underlined word is correct. Yes No climate climete
- Circle the incorrect word. equator equater
- Write the letters that make the er sound.
rumour favour flavour
- The root peri in perimeter and periscope means:
around earth measure
- A synonym for recreation is _____.
work pleasure build
- The singular of libraries is library.
- knead or need?
The chef said that you must always knead the dough before baking it.
- Expand the contraction mustn't. must not
- The underlined word comes second in alphabetical order. Yes No either eighteen eighty
- Punctuate the sentence.
On Saturday morning Dad puts his golf clubs, golf bag and golf shoes in his car.
- Are speech marks needed? Yes No
Dad said he was picking up his friend, David Booth.
- Add one or more apostrophes where necessary.
David's golf skills aren't as good as Dad's.
- How many nouns? 5
Dad and David both hit the ball along the fairway and into a bunker.
- Circle the pronoun and the noun it refers to. David used a sand wedge club to hit the ball out of the bunker and it successfully landed on the green.
- Circle the verb groups.
I have lost my club and I can't find it.
- Circle the adverb.
This is his club and I must return it immediately.
- Circle the superlative adjective.
'That's the best shot I've ever seen!' exclaimed David. 'Well done!'
- Circle the conjunction. They continued to play golf until they finished the ninth hole.
- Exclamation, question or statement? Question
Dad wondered if he'd ever score another hole in one?

MY SCORE

DAY 48

- Circle the correct spelling. imagin imagine
- Circle the correct spelling. truble trouble
- Circle the incorrect spelling. symbol symbil
- Add au, ough, or ough. Hannah though t she should proceed with caution as her car's exhaust was rattling and she didn't want to get cought for excessive noise.
- Add the suffix able to change the verbs to adjectives.
adore able avoid able
- An antonym for join is _____.
juggle separate combine
- Complete the simile.
pet or post? As deaf as a post.
- passed or past?
In the past, there was no roundabout here.
- Write how had as a contraction. how'd
- Which word comes third in alphabetical order?
prosperous prospect prosecute
- Punctuate the sentence.
During the month of September, road workers installed a roundabout at the busy junction.
- Are speech marks needed? Yes No
That junction is much safer now, the mayor announced.
- Add one or more apostrophes where necessary.
Traffic lights weren't an option at the junction.
- The underlined word is a noun. Yes No
Many vehicles, including cars, trucks, vans and motorcycles, use that motorway every day.
- Circle the word that is not needed.
The driver slowed down as he approached between the roundabout.
- Circle the adjectives. Drive carefully around the dangerous bends on the narrow road.
- Circle the pronoun. I think Dad's car needs a service and a new set of tyres.
- Circle the comparative adjective. The roundabout certainly proved to be a much safer alternative.
- Circle the conjunction. Since it has been installed, fewer accidents have occurred at the junction.
- Exclamation, command or statement? Command
Always obey road rules.

MY SCORE