

Learning Objective: Read a variety of scales

C

Five empty rectangular boxes for recording the temperature readings from the thermometers above.

Now calculate the difference between temperatures A and B.

A large empty rectangular box for showing the calculation of the difference between temperatures A and B.