

DAY 27

- Correct the spelling mistake. television
Telivishon was invented more than 100 years ago.
- Circle the correct spelling. keyboard keybord
- Circle the incorrect word. refrence reference
- Add ff, f, ph or gh. His nephew drew a rough but effective draft of the pharmacy floorplan.
- In the word autobiography, the prefix auto means:
against self car
- Expand the contraction it'll. it will
- Which word comes second in alphabetical order?
reflect referee reform refresh
- all ready or already? The barbecue had been put together and was all ready to be used.
- The base word of certainly is certain.
- The plural of man is men.
- Punctuate the sentence. Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone in 1876.
- Add a comma or commas.
In the early 1300s, clockmakers began experimenting with mechanical alarm clocks in Germany, Europe.
- Add one or more apostrophes to show possession.
Lazlo Bird's invention—the ballpoint pen—became known as the 'biro' in English-speaking countries.
- Circle the verb.
Inventors of machines possess talent, imagination and patience.
- Circle the pronoun and the noun it refers to.
Inventors often find themselves thinking about new ideas.
- Circle the part that means for example.
There are many inventions—e.g. scissors—that make our lives simpler.
- Circle the superlative adjective.
The simple wheel is arguably the most important machine to be invented.
- Is the underlined word used correctly?  Yes  No Simple machines are composed from a few parts.
- Circle the conjunction.
While a machine like a tin opener is simple, others like a computer are complex.
- Statement, command or exclamation? Command
Take care when using a pair of sharp scissors.

MY SCORE

DAY 28

- Rearrange the letters to make a word that means to travel. orjuyen journey
- Circle the correct spelling. mirror mirror
- The underlined word is incorrect.  Yes  No
August August
- Circle the correct ending: ice or is
The doctor gave the patient a good diagnosis.
- Add the suffix less to one word to make a new word.
hopeless sad
- Write who has as a contraction. who's
- Which word comes third in alphabetical order?
distress distribute distinct disturb
- wandered or wondered?
We wondered if there really were leprechauns in Ireland.
- The base word of historical is history.
- What is the singular of tomatoes? tomato
- Punctuate the sentence.
Is the capital city of Ireland Dublin or Cork?
- Add two commas. St Patrick, who is the patron saint of Ireland, was actually born in England.
- Add one or more apostrophes to show possession.
Ireland's national flower is the shamrock, which is a clover that has three leaves.
- Circle the nouns. Ireland is called the Emerald Isle because of its green landscape.
- Circle the pronoun and its noun. Ireland's coastline is very beautiful and it is a great tourist attraction.
- Circle the adjectives.
A leprechaun looks like a miniature old man with a green tunic and green hat.
- The underlined word is a verb.
 Yes  No If you catch a leprechaun, he might lead you to his pot of gold.
- Circle the error.
An amazing Irish fact is that you won't find a wild venomous snake their.
- Circle the conjunction. Because it is an island, the sea has prevented many animals reaching Ireland.
- Question, exclamation or statement? Question
Have you heard about the legend of the Blarney Stone, which is set in the walls of Blarney Castle?

MY SCORE