

DAY 17

- Rearrange the letters to make a word that means a possible cause of harm. nerdga danger
- Circle the correct spelling. ache akhe
- Circle the correct spelling. Wensday Wednesday
- Add ear, er or ur. The soldier heard a loud noise as the bomb hit the earth's sur face.
- Write an antonym for continue.
begin cease proceed
- In the word anticlockwise, the prefix anti means:
against walk away
- Write it is as a contraction. it's
- quite or quiet?
All was quiet after the bomb exploded.
- Draw lines to show the syllables in extremely.
- Complete the simile.
leaf or bone? As dry as a bone.
- Punctuate the sentence.
The soldier's name was Lieutenant Jacobsen.
- Circle the sentence that needs speech marks.
Is anyone hurt? he asked. He asked if anyone was hurt.
- Add one or more apostrophes to show possession.
Many soldiers' injuries were deep cuts from glass.
- How many verbs? 3
Medics removed glass fragments and cleaned and stitched cuts.
- Circle the conjunction. Although the scene was calm, the soldiers expected another bombing.
- Circle the verb group. The explosion had shattered windows and damaged tiles on many roofs.
- Which tense? past present
One soldier had been knocked unconscious when he hit his head.
- Write the missing verb in its correct form. give Medics give penicillin shots to prevent infection. (or gave)
- How many adverbs? 2
No one was seriously injured but everyone waited nervously at the scene.
- Circle the prepositions.
The soldier crouched down and took cover behind the car.

MY SCORE

DAY 18

- Correct the spelling mistake. _____
It is feared polar bears will become extingt.
- Circle the correct spelling. colection collection
- Circle the incorrect spelling. digree degree
- Add o, oe, ough or ow.
Although it was zero degrees, we followed the polar bear on our tiptoes.
- The underlined word is a synonym for accurate.
 Yes No wrong accepted correct
- Add the suffix ation to change the verb to a noun.
sense sensation
- Expand the contraction who'll. who will
- lose or loose? We had to look carefully so we didn't lose sight of the bear's tracks.
- Separate population into its syllables. pop-u-la-tion
- Complete the simile.
rock or bear? As solid as a rock.
- Punctuate the sentence.
Do polar bears only live in the Arctic?
- Circle the sentence that needs speech marks.
Watch out! he yelled. He yelled to watch out.
- Add one or more apostrophes to show possession.
A polar bear's prey is mainly seals.
- How many verbs? 2
When seals come up for air, the polar bear pounces.
- Circle the conjunction.
Polar bears could die out if global warming continues to make temperatures rise.
- Circle the verb group.
Temperatures are rising more quickly in the Arctic than anywhere else in the world.
- Which tense? past present
During the winter, polar bears live and hunt for seals on the Arctic sea ice.
- Write the missing verb in its correct form. begin
The sea ice is beginning to melt sooner and takes longer to return.
- How many adverbs? 2 Polar bears wait patiently for seals to suddenly appear.
- Circle the prepositions. Polar bears wait around ice holes but don't slip into them.

MY SCORE