1. Introduction

We hope that issues can be addressed by talking to the relevant staff. Open communication and regular engagement between the school, parents/carers and other stakeholders is vital to nurturing positive relationships within the whole school community.

1.1. School Information

School Ethos

In Anahilt Primary School our pupils are at the heart of everything we do. It is a happy and welcoming place where children's learning and personal development are central.

Set amidst the drumlins of County Down, the school has been in existence for over 200 years and we are very proud of our rich history. The school offers a happy, safe and caring environment in which pupils, parents and staff are valued. As a school we are committed to the well-being, happiness and success of all our pupils.

School Values:

At Anahilt Primary School our shared vision is 'Helping Children Think for Themselves'. We aim to prepare children to make reasonable and informed decisions for life's challenges. Our mission is 'to develop the intellectual, physical, aesthetic, spiritual and social characteristics of children in order to enhance the quality of their lives, both in the present and in the future'.

At Anahilt Primary School, we take the education, safety and well-being of our pupils very seriously. We therefore have the best interests of all our pupils and their families at the centre of all we do. In this regard, we encourage anyone who has a concern to speak to us as soon as possible. If concerns are dealt with at an early stage, then they are more likely to be resolved avoiding unnecessary confusion or dissatisfaction.

Many issues can be addressed simply by talking to the relevant staff in school who will all be happy to help in any way they can. Open communication and regular engagement between the school staff and parents/carers is vital to the effective management of the school.

If you have any issues please talk to the teacher as soon as possible. Concerns about matters other than in the classroom should be raised with the Principal. We regard all concerns as important and make every effort to resolve matters as quickly as possible.

We welcome communication with our staff. Parents / carers can do this by contacting staff as outlined below:

2. Scope of the Complaints Procedure

A complaint is described as an expression of dissatisfaction with our work.

2.1 Complaints with Established Procedures

Our school Complaints Procedure sets out how any expression of dissatisfaction relating to the school will be managed. By taking complaints seriously at the earliest possible stage, it is hoped that they can be resolved quickly and effectively.

Some examples of complaints:

- Not following school policy
- Communication delays/lack of communication
- Difficulties in staff/pupil relationships

This procedure should not be used for complaints with separate established procedures, however if your complaint relates to the school's failure to correctly administer any of these procedures, then you may complain by means of this procedure.

Some examples of statutory procedures and appeal mechanisms, which are not part of the school's complaints procedure, are listed below. The list is not exhaustive. The Principal/Chair of Governors will advise on the appropriate procedure to use when a complaint is raised.

Exceptions
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Admissions/Expulsions/Exclusion of children from school</li><li>• Statutory assessments of Special Educational Needs (SEN)</li><li>• School Development Proposals</li><li>• Child Protection/Safeguarding</li></ul>

The school must balance the rights of an individual to make a complaint and have it fairly investigated with the rights of staff not to be subjected to unacceptable actions or behaviour.

Any decision to treat a complaint as unreasonable must take into account the need to ensure that the complaints procedure is being fairly applied and every attempt has been made to communicate and address concerns about behaviour/conduct with the complainant.
